Products

Our products are developed to answer to fundamental human needs, both physical and emotional, and to adapt to them as they evolve and shift. This year is no exception, with many brand-new creations, as well as carefully re-engineered classics.

Whether old or new, all of our products share the same uncompromising dedication to good light. We hope you enjoy exploring them.

Holocene

Holocene is our tribute to fire. Also to man. Together with leading architects and designers, we take a step backward in time, with the aim of restoring and recreating man's age-old relationship to campfires and candlelight.

This year the Holocene family has been significantly expanded, now comprising seven different candleholders and oil lamps – each with its own unique, intimate approach to fire.
